Rp Etiquette Cont

No means no

Seriously, if they say no, or they're not comfortable stop

Never assume!

Text communication doesn't always carry or mean the same right? don't assume but do ask for clarification

Pay attention!

Look at their search info, see if they have a carrd so you don't make assumptions!

if something is private why are you in public?

People will respond to whats going on, you can't be mad

Sell your writing

Your migo'te just got tail yanked and slammed into the wall... don't just say 'ow'

When in doubt, just /tell it out

Communicate it's not scary, ok it is sometimes, but it's needed!

Afterwards!

So where do you go from here?

WELL, there is the calendar we spoke about, this qr code and everyone else in this room that you can make connections with.

If Blue says we have time, lets do a quick Q&A

Check it out if you need it!

You can find us probably in the south shroud...pvp... and a rp venue near you!
